AGNOSTIC FRONT

There are no two ways about it Agnostic Front is New York and New York is Agnostic Front. The bands energy doesn't let up and now shortly after the release of their second LP 'Cause for Alarm', There is no reason for any hardcore fan or metal fan not to see AF live at least once. This interview with vocalist Roger Miret was done on the night of their big show at the Ritz with GBH.

OC: How do you feel about many of your fans claiming that the new album is too much on the metal side?

Roger: Well I don't really think that its that metal, do you?

OC: Kind of but not totally!! Its just great thrash.

Roger: Thats what we feel. When you come out with a good debut album, Its really hard to get the same kind of attention. A band has to face a lot of pressure about coming out with a followup that is equally good.

OC: Tell us how the band works. Who writes music, lyrics, etc..

Roger: OK, Me and Rob write most of the music and the lyrics. On CFA, Pete from Carnivore wrote a lot of the lyrics. We just write the kind of music we feel.

OC: And who are you influenced by??

Roger: Mostly bands like Exodus and Metallica.

Fast Thrash. When it comes to lyrics, we're a unity band.

OC: How do you feel about the future of Hardcore?

Roger: ITS definitely very positive, its always maturing. Attitudes are getting better.

OC: And how about the crossover scene?

Roger: I love it.

OC: Well how about your future plans?

Roger: Right now we're finishing up the tour with GBH and then back home to NY to do another mini tour and then finally we'll start working on a third LP.

OC: Would you tell us what happened with Alex?

Roger: We've had some personal differences with him and he left the band. We were all friends with Gordon from NYC Mayhem and he wasn't doing anything so he joined us. And he really fits into the band well.

OC: What else do you want to tell everybody?

Roger: Thanx for buying our albums, thanx for supporting us!

BRANEATERS

Braineaters are a NY horror-punk band in the mold of the Misfits and SamHain. They currently have recorded an EP which contains 3 songs. This interview was done with guitarist Chris.

OC: Tell us how the band is working out. (Stupid Question.)

Chris: Pretty good right now. Our 7" EP is getting printed up right now and we're getting ready to release it. It just needs a little more work.

OC: How about the titles and tell us what they sound like or re mind us of.

Chris: Well, side 1 will have 'Crimson Nights' and 'Night will Fall' and side 2 will have 'Fiend without a Face'. They sorta sound like the Misfits but that's not the way we intended it to be. It just happened to be the sound we got. We're not trying to be anything else but ourselves. We just play the kind of music we like.

OC: What about the name of the band? Did you get it from the song on the misfits album?

Chris: No!!! It came from a very old horror movie about creatures from outer space who attached themselves to your head and then ate out your brain.

OC: What about some shows?

Chris: We're doing a show on Staten Island to benefit W.S.I.A. radio. We'll be playing with the Undead.

OC: About your demo tape? Are you selling it?

Chris: No, you'll just have to buy the 7". There are too many demos floating around.

OC: What else would you like to add?

Chris: Nothing really? Buy our EP.

OC: And if I don't?

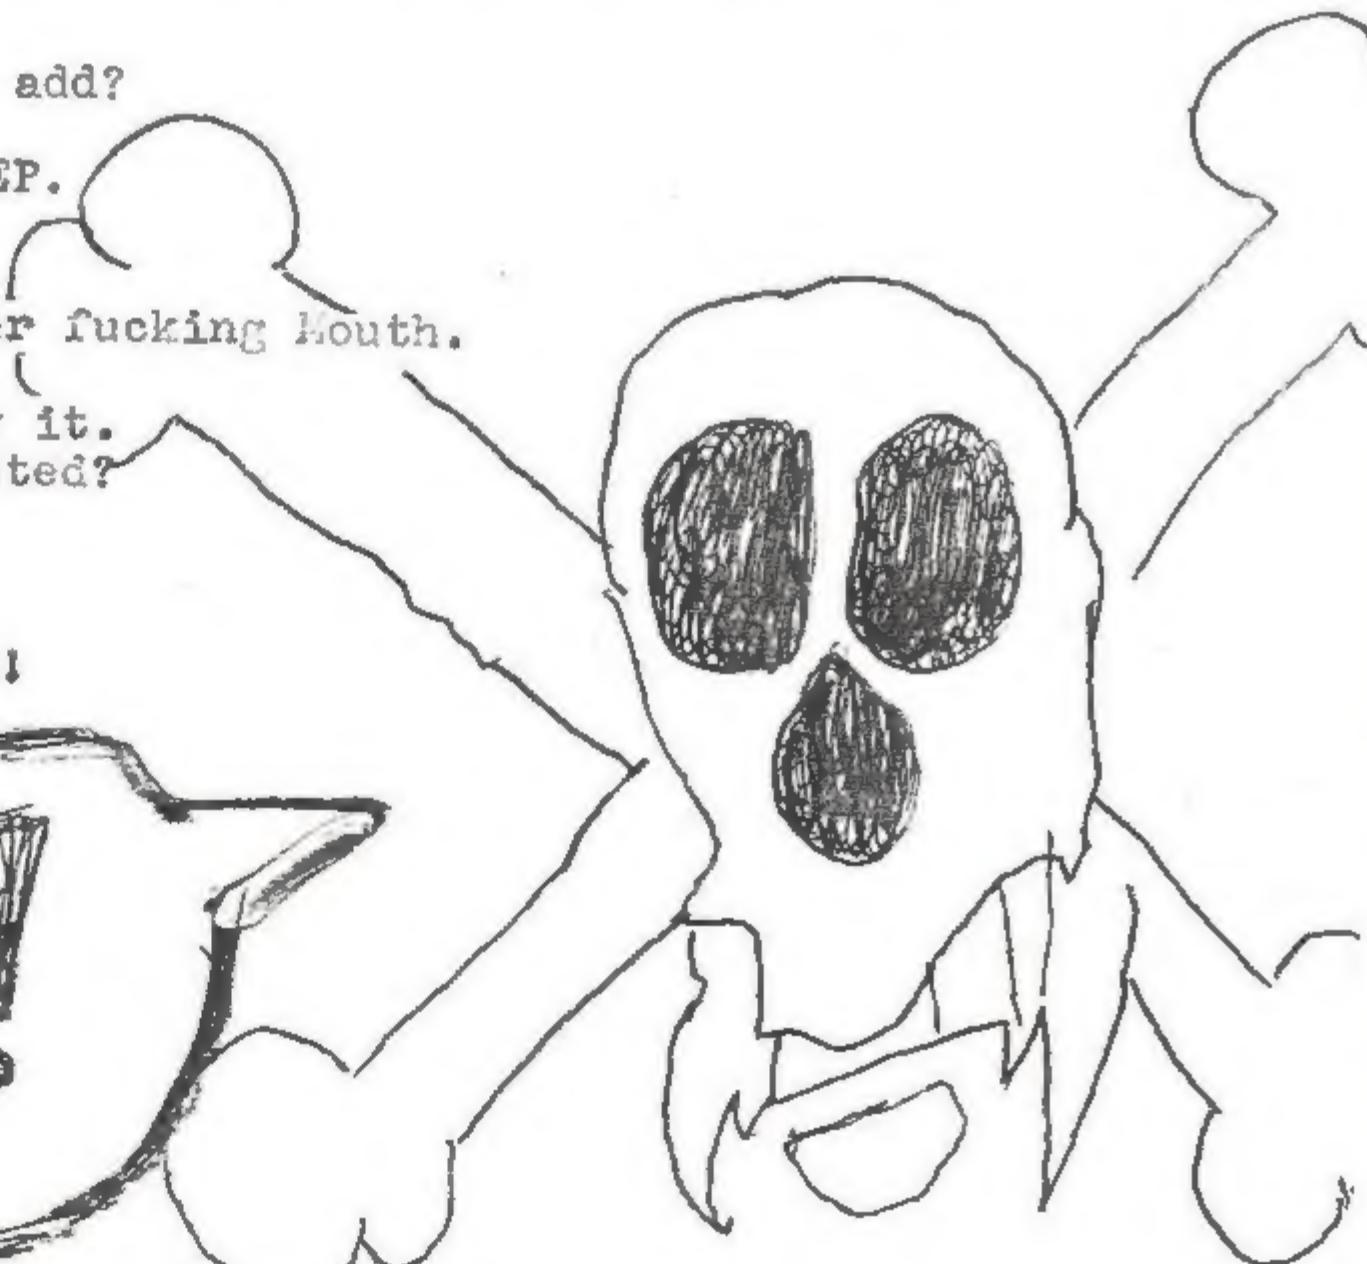

Chris: I'll punch you right in your fucking mouth.

OC: Gee, I guess I'll have to buy it.
And What about Expletive Deleted?

Chris: What about them.

OC: Thanx for the interview Chris!

OK! So there's this band called Bloodlust and they're a total piece of shit Death metal band with no talent RIGHT?

WRONG!!!! Bloodlust is a newly formed thrash band from New Jersey with a very distinguishable sound and an incredible amount of tightness! True, they do have an upside down cross for their logo but if 10,000 other death bands can get away with it, BLOODLUST should too. The only difference is BLOODLUST CAN PLAY. This band (not to be confused with the Bloodlust on metal blade records) has great potential for being the next Slayer.

They also have a very strong Hardcore influence which means alot. Their demo called 'SUICIDAL MISSION' can be gotten which contains 4 Thrash tracks: Suicidal Mission, The Evil, Bloodlust and Menacing Thunder.

Seeing Bloodlust live on stage is also a great experience.

They play tight and fast and have a decent amount of communication with the crowd. Kevin Kuzma was really cool to do this interview. (kev-drums)

OC: How did Bloodlust get together?

Kevin: We all met through ads in a weekly newspaper.

OC: After seeing you live, I was wondering what made you play 'Into Crypts of rays' (Celtic Frost cover).

Kev: Well, we just really like the song alot. Its one of all our personal likes.

OC: How about your influences and what do you all listen to when you're at home?

Kev: We like alot of other Metal bands and alot of hardcore bands. Thats basically what we're influenced by too. Celtic Frost, 7 Seconds, S.O.D. etc ...

OC: Any thing else you'd like to say??

Kev: AAAAARRRRRRGGGG, have a bloody DEATH!! Some new songs are Kill for pleasure, Vampire, Venomous Death.

OC: How about some shows you've done.

Kev: We did a show with NUCLEAR ASSAULT (killing -ED) on 4/18/86 and on 5/17/86 and CBGB on 5/25/86.

OC: What about the L.A. band BloodLust?

Kev: Well, we don't know very much about them but we're gonna keep the name until we're forced to change it. We'd like to tell everybody to look for NJ on Bloodlust material to show that's its Us.

OC: What about vinyl?

Kev: Well you can look out for a compilation called 'THRASH METAL ATTACK'. It will feature two songs from our demo called Menacing Thunder and 'Suicidal Mission'.

OC: Any final Comments?

Kev: Yeah, we all wanna thank all stores holding our tapes, WKNJ all mags and anyone who has promoted us.

STRAIGHT AHEAD

Straight Ahead is a fairly new formed band from New York City and they have one of the most unique styles of playing. They can be heard on 'End the War Zone', a 7" compilation. It also features Attitude Adjustment and Pillsbury Hardcore, but in all actuality, none of the other bands have reached the tightness and complexity of Straight Ahead.

This interview was done with vocalist/drummer Tommy Carroll.

OC: Who are your main influences

Tom: Agnostic Front, Mental Abuse, STALAG 13, 7 Seconds, Minor Threat, The list goes on and on, we're influenced by all bands we listened to and liked.

OC: Tell us about yourselves.

Tom: Since we started, me and Craig were in N.Y.C. Mayhem and Rob was in Smegma. Arman plays in Rest in Pieces also.

OC: What are your plans for the future in general?

Tom: To put out some records, tour, you know, the usual things to do.

OC: Tell us what happened to N.Y.C. Mayhem. (excellent band)

Tom: We broke up because of the musical differences. AND, before we DESTROYED our friendship, we figured we should end it all.

OC: What do you hate the most about hardcore?

Tom: The big businesses like COMBAT-CORE and rock hotel trying to invade the Scene and turn it into a money making machine.

OC: Tell us how the scene is in New York!

Tom: A lot of my friends live here and the scene is great. There are good things and there are bad things about the city.

OC: What are you trying to do? What are your goals?

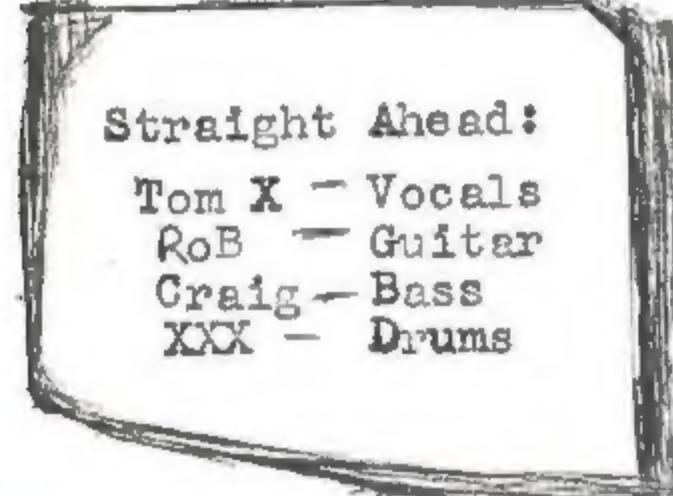

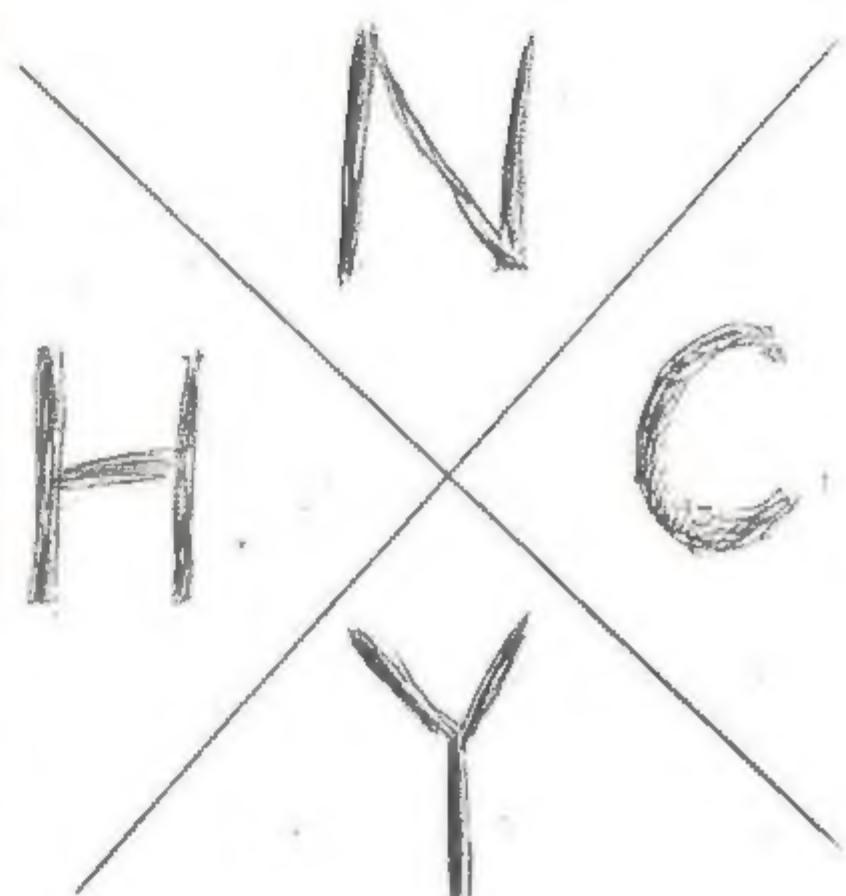

Tom: Trying to give people a better hope for tomorrow within themselves as well as their surroundings. WE WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE. We have a band which people listen to (some people), and we can communicate so why waste that and sing about stupid shit when we can really make some changes.

OC: Any final comments?

Tom: Thanx to everyone who helped us out all mags and radio stations and to all our friends, STAY TRUE.

End the Warzone" 7" Comp.
This Great 7" comp is a must.
4 Great bands. 3 from Cal. and 1
from New York. Although Straight Ahead kicked ass on All the other bands on this record, the others are still tight. Good instrumentally and have very intelligent lyrics. its about 4 bux. Get it.
Also features Larn, Pillsbury Hardcore, and Attitude Adjustment.

Tom Carroll and Craig Setari(Drums and guitar) are extremely tight on this comp. Their songs are very complicated and fast. The lyrics deal with Unity, Problems of Society, a positive outlook and the NY scene in basic.
Unique vocal quality(also by Carroll).
Keep an eye out for these guys!!!

A letter from a BLOODY CORPSE

Dear Jon and Organized Confusion,

Whats up? Nothing much here! Brooklyn Sux dick The scene out here sux! Not to mention the dickhead guidos too. As for BLOODY CORPSE, we're still kickin! Our demo is released. Its just a matter of working on the songs a little more. (and a little more money) Some titles are: 'Laughing at the Fat man', 'Manes is DEAD!', 'No Reason', 'Nancy Reagan', 'Nuclear War song', 'Cushine cop'. Included are band members.

We really hate the dicks that don't know how to slam or mosh and all they do is run around and hurt other people who are having fun. We like to beat down on those assholes. Our influences are:

D.R.I., (old)Black Flag), and of course some death bands like Celtic Frost and Exodus!

Hope to meet you real soon.

New Jersey's Social Decay have recently released their 5 songs Demo tape. It is actually on the Hardcore side but it will definitely appeal to many metal fans. The songs are: 'Everyday Habit', 'Kill or Die', 'Scared Youth', 'Dismal Wit', and 'Too Young to Die'. The demo is of very good quality and is only 2⁰⁰ and a stamp or two. WELL WORTH IT.

This interview was done with guitarist TOM.

OC: Fill us in on what has happened so far with Social Decay, Who plays what, influences, Etc...

Tom: Well Im tom, I play guitar, Steve plays bass and sings, and we have a new drummer, and his name is Joe.

OC: And what do you listen to?

Tom: Misfits, minor threat, Metallica, Kiss, Exploited and all New Jersey Bands. (ACD, Bedlam, etc...) Oh yeah, Joe likes Rush.

OC: What do your songs deal with?

Tom: Life, Death, murder, things that you read about in the news, SUICIDE, CORRUPTION. War, and other things that everybody has felt or seen.

OC: What really pisses you guys off about the present scene and Hardcore.

Tom: Definitely the fact that all the big clubs are taking over the bands and making the kids pay 13 bux to see them. Most kids just don't have the money.

OC: What about the crossover scene?

Tom: Well, ALOT of people might disagree about this with me but I really don't see anything wrong with it. As long as they aren't just weekend warriors and they really care about the scene. There are a lot of asshole Metal kids. BUT there are a lot of asshole hardcore kids TOO.

OC: And the music?

Tom: I really like the new crossover type of music that is emerging.

OC: What else would you like to say to everybody?

Tom: We are doing a 7" EP with 5 songs on it. 2 from the Demo and Three new ones. It will be out sometime in July/August. Its 3 bux.

For 5 song Demo (very good quality)

Send 2.⁰⁰ and a stamp or two

For 5 song 7" EP send 3.⁰⁰

Venom - Black Flag - Overkill
City Gardens NJ April 28 '81

Not that big of a turnout which wasn't expected for a show with 3 BIG names as these. Mostly metal kids with Satanic Jackets.

First up were Overkill and as usual, they played up a storm. Everyone loved their cover of 'FUCK YOU' from D.O... (especially the punks). O.K. played their usual set and City Gardens Rocked. Their equipment gave them a little trouble but they made the very best of it. They played too short. I wanted more.

Black Flag were also at their strange best. They featured songs from their new LP 'In my Head' as well as some faves from Loose Nut, and Damaged. Henry Rollins was really ragging out on the Satanic thing. 'Gimme an S, I, T, A, L, what's that spell, ---SATAN!!!!' Louie Louie as a finale made them the best of the evening.

Venom, well, they showed up in red Satin clothes (like you'd expect KISS to be wearing) and seemed to be posing for something. I was all ready to bring my camera in but Venom said NO CAMERAS. Scumbags.

I will admit, they put on a great live show and the earlier Venom tunes were great but their new unreleased stuff sounds like Iron Maiden.

But I must say that this was the best 3 band show I've ever seen in my life. No kidding.

The Meatmen - Die Kruezen
(Irving Plaza) R.I.P.

Well, this may very well be the last show to come to Irving. During Die Kruezen, the P.A. fell off the top part of the stage and landed on the heads of two of the kids watching. One of them is sueing Irving for quite a bit. Anyway Die Kruezen got off to a decent start but wound up sounding like shit in the end.

The Meatmen were awesome. Entering the stage with his complete heavy metal outfit, Tesco Vee and company blasted through many new tunes and a hitload of classics from their first LP: 'We're the Meatmen and You Suck'. As an encore they covered 'Devils Whorehouse' from the Misfits. He slamming Sucked badly but the band was great. Can't wait to see them again!!!

Black Flag In My Head

now, everybody should have a copy of the latest from BF. As Black Flag continues to progress, so do their fans. Many say that BF has sold out to a metal crowd. Bullshit!!! This album follows in the mold of the three previous LP's. Greg Ginn is a wonder in himself. As you listen to his solos, you keep waiting for some kind of melody progression and it just never comes. Best song is Retired at 41. If you never came across BF, give it up.

Kreator

Holy SHIT!!! So where the fuck did KREATOR come from. Who knew what these guys were all about? These guys can thrash up a storm while not getting too ridiculous with the Satan lyrics. Know what? I love em'.

Endless Pain especially. Who knows, maybe there are some good Death bands.

Give Kreator a chance.

Samhain November Coming Fire
God is on Earth in the form of Samhain. Ex Misfit G.Danzig sends shivers up your spine with this killer LP. New guitarist Damien plays some really fucked up chords. Kiss of Steel, Halloween II, and Novembers fire are the best songs.

This was expected from Samhain.

I hate to say it but I really don't care for VV's new LP (on Combat) care for VV's new LP (on Combat) War and Pain! I loved their debut LP 'War and Pain' because it was different. But this album gives me the impression that they are following in the mold of every other shit assed Death Metal Band around. AND what happened to Snakes voice? It changed!! No melody just a lot of worthless screaming. VV should rethink about where they are going. and go back to the style of W.A.P.

Agnostic Front: Cause for Alarm
Incredible album. No 2 ways about it. No sellout, no bullshit. Just fast well thought out THRASH. If you don't Already own this, you must be fucking retarded. AF can do no wrong. A lot of great musicianship. Best track is definitely PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

Onslaught: "The Force"

Let's see, I remember reading about Onslaught in Maximum R n R a while back. I bought their first LP "Power from Hell" and in spite of the Satanic image, I liked it. They reminded be of a hardcore band that could actually play. Great trax like 'Thermonuclear Devastation' and 'Skullcrusher 1' really caught me. BUT this is total Shit. They have all changed instruments and added a member. Combat records have yet ruined another band. The music is the same old played out death/thrash and the singer can't make up his mind if he wants to impersonate Cronos or king Diamond. Think twice before giving Combat another 7.50 cents. Great original titles too: 'Flame of the AntiChrist', 'Thrash till the Death', 'Fight with the Beast', 'Metal Forces' etc...

Corrosion of Conformity
Well, the latest rumor says that COC is, or soon to be broken up. I'll believe it when I see it. Animosity, one of the first crossover albums, is definitely their best. There is a great balance between Hardcore, religion and metal. The album mixes protest with music that can't be beat. Eye for an Eye, which is definitely more on the hardcore side is not as well produced and has less memorable songs. Either way, I would invest some money on COC albums.

EMO CORNER

Cro-Mags 'Age of Quarrell'

Sarcasm: WAR SONG

Best track: Back off.

Nuclear Assault GOD BLESS NUCLEAR ASSAULT!!! Live, Suffer, Die

Mad Butchers: Tunes from the Menstruating Twat.
When I bought this demo at Bloeker Boss (102 5 bix), I was expecting another piece of shit from mad butcher. Despite the sexist title, its really a good tape. Another impressive tape. Quality improvement from Beating Veggies, Satan Sucks. Best tunes: Beating Veggies, Satan Sucks. Definitely give this tape a chance.

Social Decay: Demo
I've heard a shitload of demos, a lot of bad ones and a lot of good ones. But Social decay is the tops!! Definitely the best one (right along with Sarcasm). Real intelligent lyrics, great musicianship and all around good tunes.
Best track: Kill or Die
Address in with inter.

T.F.D. Total fuckin Death
That's about all that this shit is. No harmony, no coordination, just ab of screaming about Satan. SUX TERRIBLY. First person who wants it can have it. Write me.

Lethal Aggression Demo
Another good demo to pick up. 7 catchy tunes. Spooze, is the best track. I saw them live and they were great also. Should be on vinyl soon. Get it
